

Directions to Bearwood College.

The easiest route by car is to come via the M4 Motorway & A 329 (M)

From the M4

From London, the West & Wales: Take the M4 to Junction 10, then take the A329 (M) in the direction of Reading.

Leave at the first exit, (Winnersh Triangle), then take the A329 in the direction of Winnersh & Wokingham (! Speed Cameras - 40 MPH limit)
At the Winnersh crossroads, turn right just before the Sainsbury's Supermarket on to King Street Lane. (! Speed cameras - 30 MPH limit)
Pass under the Motorway bridge, turn left at the mini-roundabout into Bearwood Road and the entrance to Bearwood College will be found at the next Junction, approximately 400 yards on the right.

From the M3:

Leave the M3 at Junction 3 and take the A322 in the direction of Bracknell. Upon reaching Bracknell, take the A329 (M) to Reading, passing over the M4 junction and leaving the A329 (M) at the Winnersh Triangle junction as detailed above.

If you are travelling from the South West, you may alternatively leave at Junction 4 and come via Hook, Arborfield and the B3030.

By Rail:

The closest Station is Winnersh, served by South West Trains from London Waterloo & Reading and Great Western from Reading & Guildford
When you leave the station, turn to your right - the Winnersh crossroads is then 200 yards. Allow 20 minutes walk to the college.
